Description:

Focusing only on those features of Microsoft Word 2013 that are relevant to the legal community, this updated edition of the Payne Group's market-leading guide to Word provides industry-specific information about the computer program that will help legal professionals operate effectively and efficiently in their environment. A companion website also includes customized legal templates and documents, hands-on exercises, and practice files, among many other services. Whether they are using Word for the first time or simply updating to the most recent version, readers will find all of the information they'll need to increase their productivity and make the most out of Microsoft's word processing program in this expert manual.

Excellent resource for usage of Word in a law firm. Law firms have their own special document production needs, and I know for a fact that The Payne Group has been a part of this since at least 1996-97 when law firms were switching from WordPerfect 5.1 DOS to Windows 97 and the MS Office Suite. I was in the midst of the transition because just before that time, I switched my career from that of a legal secretary to a computer trainer, and The Payne Group was very involved with the transition of law firms to Word. This book is a must have for anyone seeking to use Word in the most efficient way from a legal perspective. And it certainly is a must have for every IT department when upgrading from a former version of Office to the newest version.
